CELTIC IRISH DANCE ACADEMY

Celtic Irish Dance Academy (CIDA) is an up-and-coming Los Angeles Irish Dance school under the direction of Riverdance Star, Maeve Croke, TCRG & ADCRG. At CIDA, we strive to bring the best out in each dancer through inspirational and creative teaching. We nurture each student's unique abilities and talents, engrain a love of dance, and encourage elevated individual standards. Our dancers gain self-confidence, discipline, and learn the importance and benefits of teamwork while preparing for various performances. These events and performances can range from local community events to the World Irish Dance Championships. No matter what your goal is, there is a place for you here at CIDA, and we look forward to welcoming you to the CIDA family!
